THE GAMES STORY

In the Popsicle Path Galaxy, there is a highly evolved species of penguins with advanced technology. They are a flourishing utopia. During their blossom, a top secret governing entity called Igloo has been unveiled. The secret truth of the galaxy's thriving worlds unfold. It sparks war, unrest, coup d'etats and resistance groups as the secret society attempts to regain grip and tyrannical control over the galaxy. During the war, a Rebellion group called the Rebel Space Penguins are on a mission that will sway the fate for their galaxy. During the mission, events occur where they end up sucked into a strong, gravitational wormhole that pulls in the penguins and their rebel ship.

They find themselves in a uncharted planetary system. Even further from a home, energy cells depleted, gravity engines misaligned, they use the last of their reserve power and set course for the nearest habitable planet. In the advent of RSP, they are met with peace by the Terrans of Earth but are quickly tricked and introduced to further tyranny by the inhabitants. With no immediate means to return home, they transcend their physical form into data and take refuge in Earth's blockchain, Ethereum. The Terrans hire Noah (an S rank member of the Intergalactic Dismal Degen Bounty Hunters) to capture and retrieve the peculiar, mischievous, Rebel Space Penguins.

GAMEPLAY MECHANICS

There is one Capturer and 5-15 Penguin Escapers who all enter one map.

Escapers win the game by completing tasks to fill the escape bar. The hidden Capturer (disguised as a penguin) will try to secretly capture everyone before the escape bar fills. Escapers can call a meeting to vote on who they think the capturer is (to remove them from the game). Once the tasks are completed, two explosions will open randomly spawned holes in the wall that the penguins have to escape through, but watch out, the capturer is now revealed and doesn't need to hide himself anymore.

Captors win the game by capturing all the Escapers. You must capture in secret, otherwise the escapers can vote you out as the imposter and they will win the game. You have 3 sticky glue traps to place throughout the map and you can lock up to 3 security doors at a time (to slow down escapers).

(Strategically block door ways by locking security doors to force penguins into your traps)
